

Apostle Clifton Pettit

Apostle and Pastor Clifton Pettit is a full-blood Cherokee living in Marble City, Oklahoma. He is the founder of House of Praise Church in Marble City and has been ministering the Word of God for 40 years. He teaches the love of God, transformation by revelation of God's Word, and unity among all ethnic groups. He is a seasoned teacher of effective land discernment and redemption with multiple assignments leading teams on the land. He serves as a leader and instructor at S.W.A.T. at The Native American Training Center in Mounds, OK. Apostle Pettit leads and serves his community's Marble City Food Pantry for those in need.